EMERGENCY FOOD DRIVE RECAP: Although our Emergency Food Drive is no longer taking place, we thank each and every one of those who donated food, finances, time and energy to help our neighbors!!

"In October 2025, several CUMC members expressed concern about the adverse effects of the prolonged federal government shutdown and the reduction of SNAP benefits. An announcement was made in the weekly newsletter and from the pulpit in late October/early November that an organizational meeting would be held ...to discuss a possible food drive."

"The response received from the community, both in donated goods as well as monetary donations, was fantastic."

"We received almost $7700 in monetary donations so a group of volunteers handled purchasing food at Sam's Club and then taking it to Incarnation... We estimated these shopping trips resulted in a total of 17,000 pounds of food delivered."

GUESS WHAT'S BACK?: When people ask what Wednesday nights look like at Collierville, I tell them it feels like the church taking a deep breath together. We call the whole evening THE GATHERING because it is the one night when people arrive from every direction and settle into a shared rhythm. Some come racing in from work. Some drift in with kids in tow. Others finish a late meeting or drive across town after a long day. All of that is expected. FIND OUT MORE: www.colliervilleumc.info/thegathering.

JOIN US ON THE ISLAND FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT KIDS! All kids are invited from 5:45-7:30 PM with drop-off in Room 26/28.

In an effort to bring everyone together, we're excited to introduce ROTATIONS! Each week from 5:45-6:30, kids will participate in a special emphasis area such as music, art, science, service projects, and more. Then from 6:30-7:30, we'll come together for games and a Bible story with Dr. Ash every week. Come ready for fun, friends, and faith-filled moments every Wednesday night!

WANT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE ON SUNDAYS?:

Jump in with our Tech Team and use your gifts to support worship! Open to students 6th grade & up and adults - no experience needed, and training is provided.
